The following table represents data collection undertaken to determine content and layout of the new library website.

Audience	Questions	Response Summaries
Students	How often would you use a library website?	Before coming to the library if they get time (around once a week).
	What resources would you like to see on the website?	Help with looking for books, and pictures.
	Why would you visit the new library website?	To see new books that are in the library.
Family Members	How often would you use a library website?	Whenever we have an issue or question about students in the library, book donations, book fairs.
	What resources would you like to see on the website?	Information about community, where to donate, book fair dates, pictures of kids.
	Why would you visit the new library website?	Have a question for the staff, or want to find out information relating to their students and the library.
Faculty Members	How often would you use a library website?	Whenever we need assistance for their teaching resources.
	What resources would you like to see on the website?	Links to websites, how to build a resource list and have it pulled from the shelves.
	Why would you visit the new library website?	When we need books from the library to support teaching units.